

Children's Outdoor Bill of Rights

THE CHILDREN'S OUTDOOR BILL OF RIGHTS WAS PASSED THROUGH THE 2013 NEW MEXICO STATE LEGISLATURE AS SENATE MEMORIAL 10.

A MEMORIAL SUPPORTING THE IDEA THAT EVERY NEW MEXICO CHILD SHOULD HAVE AMPLE OUTDOOR OPPORTUNITIES USING EXISTING RESOURCES.

WHEREAS, New Mexico is a state rich in diverse natural resources and wildlife as well as outstanding natural areas that provide residents with a wide variety of outdoor recreation opportunities; and

WHEREAS, a growing body of research and literature indicates that being in nature is increasingly important for children, especially for children raised in highly industrialized urban environments; and

WHEREAS, outdoor activity in natural environments has the potential to improve children's mental health and physical well-being or, in the words of one student, "we need to get more air and oxygen, which fuels our bodies and helps us think"; and

WHEREAS, an increase in outdoor school activities can increase student attendance, focus, enthusiasm for school and academic performance and reduce negative behaviors; and

WHEREAS, outdoor activities can reduce obesity and diabetes in New Mexico where one-third of our children are overweight and where diabetes rates jumped forty percent from 1990 through 2000; and

WHEREAS, teens and young adults have one of the highest rates of unemployment and would benefit from volunteer and other job training opportunities in outdoor and natural resources fields; and

WHEREAS, taking care of natural resources and forming good stewardship habits at an early age are important aspects of learning to care for the world around us and to work for positive change; and

WHEREAS, the wonder and joy of discovery in nature is a fundamental childhood experience and promotes mental and physical health, academic achievement, future economic success, civic engagement and environmental literacy.
